On March 4, 2024, the offender's conditions of supervision were reviewed by the probation officer and she signed said conditions acknowledging an understanding of her requirements.

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 10 You must participate in an inpatient substance abuse treatment program and any recommended aftercare. You must follow the rules and regulations of the treatment program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, intensity, etc.). You must pay the costs of the program if financially able.

CAUSE

On March 2, 2024, Ms. Eller commenced her 36-month term of supervised release in the Eastern District of Washington. Pursuant to her special conditions of supervision, the offender was referred for co-occurring services and she was placed on the random urinalysis testing program.

On March 7, 2024, this officer left a voicemail message for the offender indicating that the urinalysis color she had been assigned at her intake appointment was incorrect. She was further provided with her new color and was instructed to report to Pioneer Human Services (PHS) when that color was called.

On March 11, 2024, the offender failed to report for random urinalysis testing at PHS when her assigned color was called.

On March 12, 2024, this officer contacted the offender who advised she never received this officer's voicemail on March 7, 2024, which provided her with her new color for the urinalysis testing program. She also indicated that she was at Spokane Addiction Recovery Centers (SPARC) in an effort to get into inpatient treatment. She explained that her former treatment provider, YFA Connections, informed her that she would not be accepted back into their treatment program until she completed inpatient treatment. She further admitted to using methamphetamine and marijuana on or about March 10, 2024. In response, she was instructed to report to the U.S. Probation Office on that same date to provide a urine specimen. Ms. Eller failed to report to the U.S. Probation Office as instructed.

On March 14, 2024, this officer met with Ms. Eller at SPARC. At that time, she signed a waiver of hearing form agreeing to the above-referenced modification.

It is respectfully recommended that the Court modify the offender's conditions of supervised release to include the requirement that she participate in inpatient treatment and any recommended aftercare services.

Respectfully submitted,
